4. Should it become evident after the conclusion of the contract, that payment is jeopardized by the Buyer's lack in financial means, or should the Buyer be in default with a considerable portion of the amount due or should other circumstances arise which show a material deterioration in the Buyer's financial position after the conclusion of the contract, we shall be authorized to make use of rights under § 321 BGB (German Civil Code) and to make due any and all of our accounts receivable due and resulting from the same legal relationship.

4. Cancellation of orders by the Buyer are generally not possible. However, under special circumstances, the Purchaser may grant the Buyer the right to cancel the order against payment of a cancellation fee of 25% of the order value. However, delayed deliveries caused by gross negligence of the Purchaser entitles the Buyer to cancel the orders after given the Purchaser a notice period of 3 weeks to fulfill the contract.

V. Retention of Title

1. All goods delivered to the Buyer shall remain our property (Reserved Property) until all of the Buyer's accounts resulting from the business relationship with him, in particular any account balances have been settled. This condition shall apply to any future as well as any conditional claims including accepted notes and such cases where the Buyer will affect payments on specifically designated claims. As soon as the Buyer has settled his accounts with us in full, he shall obtain title to those goods which were delivered to him before such payment was effected.

2. With regard to processing or manufacturing of the Reserved Property, we shall be deemed to be manufacturer within the meaning of § 950 BGB (German Civil Code) without committing us in any way. The processed or manufactured goods shall be regarded as Reserved Property within the meaning of clause V/1 of these Conditions. If the Buyer manufactures, combines or mixes the Reserved Property with other goods we shall obtain co-ownership in the new goods in proportion to the invoiced price of the Reserved Property to the invoiced price of the other goods. If, by such combining or mixing, our ownership expires, the Buyer herewith transfers to us any rights which the Buyer will have in the new stock or goods in proportion to the invoiced price of the Reserved Property, and he will keep them in safe custody free of charge. Our co-ownership rights shall be regarded as Reserved Property within the meaning of clause V/1 of these Conditions.

3. The Buyer may resell the Reserved Property only within the normal course of his business in accordance with his normal business terms and provided he is not in default of payment and provided also that any rights resulting from such resale will be transferred to us in accordance with clause V/4 through V/6 of these Conditions. The Buyer shall not be entitled to dispose of the Reserved Property in any other way.

4. The Buyer hereby assigns to us any claims resulting from the resale of the Reserved Property. Such claims shall serve as our security to the same extent as the Reserved Property itself. If the Reserved Property is resold by the Buyer together with other goods not purchased from us, then any receivables resulting from such resale shall be assigned to us in the ratio of the invoiced value of the other goods sold by the Buyer. In the case of resale of goods in which we have co-ownership rights according to clause V/2 of these Conditions, the assignment shall be limited to the part which corresponds to our co-ownership rights.

5. The Buyer shall have the right to collect any receivables resulting from the resale of the Reserved Property. This right shall expire if withdrawn by us, at the latest if the Buyer defaults in payment; fails to honor a bill of exchange; or files for bankruptcy. We shall exert our right of revocation only if and in so far as it becomes evident after the conclusion of the contract that payment resulting from this contract or from other contracts is jeopardized by the lack of Buyer's ability to pay. The Buyer shall - upon our request - immediately inform his customers of such assignment and to forward to us any information and documents necessary for collection.

6. Should the Buyer default in payment or should he fail to honor a draft we shall be entitled to take back the Reserved Property and to enter, for this purpose, the Buyer's premises. The same shall apply should, after the conclusion of the contract, it become evident that payment resulting from this contract or from other contracts is jeopardized by the Buyer's lack of ability to pay. If we take back the Reserved Property, this shall not be regarded as withdrawal from the contract. The statutory regulations of the Insolvenzordnung (= German Insolvency Act) shall remain unaffected.

We may determine the weight on a calculated ("theoretical") basis as provided by the norms and to add 2 ½ % as trade weight ("Handelsgewicht").

3. Any indications given in the delivery notes as to the number of pieces, bundles etc. are not binding if and in so far as the goods are invoiced by weight. Where, in accordance with trade usage, the goods are not weighed piece by piece, the total weight of the delivery shall prevail. Any difference with regard to the calculated weight of the single pieces shall be proportionally allocated to them.

We will buy insurance only if requested to by the Buyer and at his cost. The Buyer shall unload the goods at his cost.

5. The goods will be delivered unpacked and not be protected against rust. Only where so provided by trade usage will the goods be packed. Any package, protection and/or transport device will be supplied according to our experience and at the Buyer's cost. We will take back such devices only at our warehouse. We will not bear any costs for their re-transport or disposal.

"ca."-quantities have been agreed to, we may exceed or reduce such quantities up to 10%.

IX. Callable and Continuous Deliveries

1. Where the contract provides for continuous deliveries, the Buyer shall divide the quantities and grades of the goods into approximately equal monthly shipments. Otherwise we shall be entitled to specify them at our own fair and just discretion.
2. Should the single calls for delivery exceed the total contractual quantity, we shall be entitled, yet not committed, to deliver the surplus quantity and invoice it at the prices applicable at the time of the call or the delivery.

X. Warranty Provisions

1. Our liability for any defects of the goods will exclusively be determined by the written agreements. We shall not be responsible for an only insignificant decrease in value or suitability of the goods.
2. If and in so far the Buyer's claim for defects is justified and has been made in time, we may, upon our discretion, remedy the defect or deliver non-defective goods ("substitution").
3. Should we fail or decline substitution, the Buyer may, upon the elapse of an adequate additional period of time set by him, withdraw from the contract or reduce the purchase price. In cases the goods have already been resold, processed or transformed, the Buyer may only reduce the purchase price.

XI. General liability limits

The liability of the vendor for breaches of obligation which do not involve a defect in the delivery item is precluded if the breach of obligation is due to simple negligence on the part of the vendor, the vendor's legal representatives or agent. This does not apply to losses caused by harm to life, body or health. Any liability in accordance with the [German] Product Liability Act will remain unaffected.

XII. Place of fulfillment, court of jurisdiction, applicable law

1. The place of fulfillment for deliveries is the delivery factory for deliveries ex works and the warehouse for deliveries ex warehouse. The place of fulfillment for services to be performed under this contract other than deliveries, particularly payment, is the registered office of the vendor.
2. If the purchaser is engaged in commerce, the court of jurisdiction for any disputes emerging from the contractual relationship will be the registered office of the vendor. We are also entitled to assert a claim at the registered office of the purchaser.
3. The contract is governed exclusively by German law.

If deliveries are made from the Federal Republic of Germany to other EU Member States, the purchaser must inform us of the VAT registration number under which its profit and income are taxed within the EU. Should this information not be provided, the purchaser must pay the legally-owed VAT in addition to the agreed purchase price for our deliveries.
6. When deliveries from the Federal Republic of Germany to other EU Member States are invoiced, the VAT rule of the respective recipient Member State will apply if either the purchaser is or we are registered for VAT in said EU Member State.
7. Should any provision of these General Terms and Conditions of Supply and Delivery be or become invalid, the validity of the other provisions will remain unaffected.
